

Indonesia s solar panel exports surge

Overview

Could US tariffs threaten Indonesia's solar panel exports?

Indonesia's solar panel exports have soared in recent years, reaching record highs despite mounting trade pressure from the United States. Now, a petition filed by U.S. manufacturers could trigger new tariffs that threaten Indonesia's growing presence in the clean energy market.

Does Indonesia export solar panels to the United States?

Indonesia has rapidly scaled its solar panel exports to the United States. According to data from Statistics Indonesia (BPS), exports under HS code 85414300 rose from just US$19.88 million in 2021 to US$553.44 million in 2024. In the first five months of 2025 alone, shipments reached US$433.08 million, indicating continued strong demand.

Why are Chinese solar manufacturers rethinking export strategies?

Solar cells accounted for roughly 28% of all U.S. solar imports since the first round of tariffs, compared with 6.5% in 2023, the data showed. Chinese manufacturers are already revising export strategies due to concerns about tariffs on Indonesia and Laos, said Fei Chen, solar research analyst at consultancy Rystad Energy.

Why is Indonesia attracting investment in solar manufacturing?

Indonesia is attracting investment in solar manufacturing due to US tariffs on Chinese and other Southeast Asian solar products. The country has relaxed regulations and incentivized foreign companies to establish solar manufacturing facilities in Indonesia.

Can Indonesia export solar power to Singapore?

As of today, Indonesia has signed an agreement to export 3.4 GW of solar power to Singapore. "But there are several conditions, two of which are that the solar panels and batteries must be made in Indonesia because we want to build a local supply chain,” he said.

Which countries export solar panels to the United States?

Solar panel exports from Vietnam, Malaysia, Thailand and Cambodia to the U.S. fell by 33% on an annual basis in the nine months since the first round of tariffs in June. In the same period, exports from regional neighbours Indonesia and Laos grew around eight-fold, the trade data showed.
